UWM HONORS GREG UHEN WITH DISTINGUISHED ALUMNUS AWARD

MILWAUKEE — The University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee recently honored Greg Uhen, president and CEO of Eppstein Uhen Architects, with the 2008 Distinguished Alumnus Award. The award, recognizing Uhen's outstanding achievements in his professional career and civic involvement, was presented at the Alumni Association program and reception held on May 17, 2008 at the UWM Union.

Uhen graduated from the UWM School of Architecture and Urban Planning in 1981. He worked for four years before landing a job at the firm that one day he would come to own: Pfaller, Herbst & Eppstein. Uhen's strong design, business savvy, and leadership skills drew the notice of the partners and after only 12 years with the firm he was named president of Eppstein Uhen Architects (EUA).

Today, as president and CEO of Milwaukee's largest architectural firm, Greg Uhen leads EUA's team of 140 dedicated industry professionals with a corporate philosophy that combines his passion for design, stalwart business ethic and commitment to charitable giving. Throughout the past decade he has overseen the firm's financial and technological revolution, an office move to the Third Ward, and an office expansion into Madison. Uhen's leadership has created a legacy of design and development that will continue far beyond himself.
